

Nevada Reading Week

March 2-6, 2020

We have a week of fun activities planned. Below is a list of activities scheduled. We hope all students will participate!

	Activity
Monday 3/2/20	Black, white, and red all over. Let's celebrate Dr. Seuss! & Book-nic Dr. Seuss' birthday is today! To celebrate, students are encouraged to wear black, white, and red today. Feel free to add some Dr. Seuss flare to your outfit or dress as a Dr. Seuss character! We will celebrate with a special treat in class. Please send your child to school with a book of their choosing and a large towel to sit on for our school wide "Book-nic." Students will gather as a class on the field or blacktop in the afternoon with their book and towel. (alternate plans will be made for inclement weather)
Tuesday 3/3/20	Yee-haw! Mosey on over in your western wear! This year's theme is Saddle up and READ! Students are encouraged to dress in western wear. Examples: boots, bandana, cowboy hat, jeans, plaid, etc. Be creative and have fun!
Wednesday 3/4/20	Roundup the Most Words on a Shirt Day Wear a shirt with as many words as you can. The student in each class wearing the shirt with the most words will win a $5.00 certificate to use in the upcoming Spring Book Fair. Homemade shirts are permitted. Please ensure language on shirts is appropriate for school. (Students must count how many words are on their shirt before arriving at school.)
Thursday 3/5/20	Dress Up Like Your Favorite Book Character Have fun dressing as your favorite book character. To participate students must carry around a book with the character featured in it during the school day. Feel free to stop by the library before Thursday and check out a book if needed.
Friday 3/6/20	Grade Level Buckaroo Day! To finish an amazing week, students should dress in their grade level color listed below today. Let's show some class spirit! Kindergarten: Yellow 1 st : Green 2 nd : Orange 3 rd : Pink 4 th : Blue 5 th : Purple

All dress needs to follow dress code regulations.
