Please enroll your child in the Safekey program! Even if you do not plan on using the service regularly, it is imperative to have a back-up plan in the event that your normal after-school routine is interrupted.

Families may not be able to accompany their child(ren) to their classroom on their first day.

Gates at which families will meet students for dismissal after school are indicated below by the ellipses.

Battista (marked with the circle with the slash) will be closed to traffic movement when buses are present for the safety of students.

The gates will be locked by 3:20 p.m.
